conference-2024

A free interdisciplinary conference that explores how the visual arts in Philadelphia and beyond promote flourishing in individuals and communities.

Featuring programming on:

- How the visual arts and creativity cultivate flourishing
- Audience experience and well-being
- Community impact of the arts
- Trauma-informed organizations
- Advocacy strategies
- Collecting data that illustrates institutional values

Hear perspectives from psychology researchers, public health researchers, social workers, arts practitioners, and museum professionals, and connect with others who, like you, believe that the visual arts are indispensable for flourishing.
